NOVEMBER THEME: STORY

November 6 What's Y/Our Story?
Rev. Kevin Tarsa

Two days before the US presidential election, what stories are we telling about ourselves, about others and about our community, and how are those stories shaping us in the very telling? In anticipation of the service, please tell the story of UUCM in six words and send it to Rev. Kevin by November 2 (minister@uugrassvalley.org). Bonus points if you offer a narrative sentence rather than a list of six attributes! Note - Daylight Saving Time ENDS Sunday, November 6 at 2 a.m. Turn your clocks back one hour and SLEEP IN!

November 13 Shaping the Story of our Lives
Service Leader: Don Baldwin
Worship Associate: Gail Johnson Vaughan

Being alive dictates the demand to make choices, and these choices are inextricably connected with the shape of our lives - they both define, and create, our life story. In this living narrative, how do we find our voice, define our calling, and receive guidance to live authentic and compassionate lives? How will spirit enter in? What role will each of us be led to play in the wider social order?

November 20 Belonging
Rev. Kevin Tarsa

Welcome UUCM's newest members, reflect on the nature of community and membership, and (re)consider your own sense of belonging at UUCM. With music by the UUCM choir!

November 27 Oh, We Give Thanks!
Rev. Kevin Tarsa and others

A figurative thanks-giving feast inviting us to surface, sing, savor and act upon our gratitude for the gifts that bless our lives. We will include a visual meditation of your digital photographs capturing, well, anything (all-age appropriate) that calls forth your gratitude. Please send your digital photos to admin@uugrassvalley.org by November 22.

DECEMBER THEME: PRESENCE

December 4 What's a UU to do with Christmas?
Rev. Kevin Tarsa

Many people wrestle with the season and holiday of Christmas, whether with its social demands, its theological history, its commercial nature in U.S. culture, or the family dynamics it amplifies. Wherever you are in the "Bah, Humbug!" - to - "It's The Most Wonderful Time Of The Year!" spectrum, come, find your own way to enter the heart of the season with thoughtfulness and presence.

Update on Black Lives Matter

By Rev. Kevin Tarsa

Deep gratitude to all who participated in the October 23 World Café conversation regarding what this congregation will do in response to the theft of its Black Lives Matter banners. Here's a brief initial report out from that gathering and an invitation to invest energy in the steps to which you are drawn.

WHAT WE DID

Gail Johnson Vaughan and I invited the 40+ participants into a series of small group conversations. After spending 20 minutes with one question, people changed groups between questions, and so ideas, perspectives, new awarenesses and new questions gradually percolated through the room and informed conversations.

The questions were designed to focus people's discernment first on the deeper "why's," then the internal work or behavior changes that moving toward those "why's" might ask of people, and finally to specific steps to be taken. How would you answer them?

1. What change do we want to see as a result of our response to the banner theft?
2. What would seeking that change require of us?
3. What next steps would lead to the change we want to see?

After the round of questions, we asked each table to choose two key insights to share and one next step to recommend to the large group. Finally, we asked people to sign up for the next step(s) to which they were willing to give energy to help it happen, and to identify those steps about which they felt strongly, whether or not they were willing or able to bring personal energy to them at this time.

THE CATEGORIES OF NEXT STEPS NAMED

You'll notice that many involve learning. As you read them, consider: To which steps are you willing to give energy so that they might happen? Which steps matter most to you, or feel most important?

TAKING A COLLECTIVE STANCE

- Decide on a congregational response with consensus
- Decide on a proposal for an action plan through a consensus process by the congregation.

LEARNING, REACHING OUT, ENGAGING THE COMMUNITY

- Educate ourselves
 - Educate ourselves, then reach out to the broader community
 - Training, education and discussion on having difficult conversations, partnering love with understanding
 - Educate: Black Lives Matter, Listening, Nonviolent Communication or something similar

INVITE SPEAKERS TO UUCM

- Invite Speakers to UUCM for Sunday Congregational Gatherings

EXTERNAL CONVERSATION

- Initiate community conversations/forum about Black Lives Matter
- Conversations needed within UUCM, the wider community, other churches and organizations.

EDUCATE AND REACH OUT

- Educate UUCM, the organization, about Black Lives Matter and other races.

Out of this, I can imagine a couple teams of people who are working to bring these steps to life. If you are drawn to and have energy to devote to any of these actions, sign up at UUCM Saturday or Sunday morning, or contact Rev. Kevin (minister@uugrassvalley.org)

Thank you to those of you who have "let's just get it done" energy, for your patience with this process of conversation and reflection. My hope is that the thefts of the banner will invite you into deeper understanding and awareness, as well as and as a grounding for courageous collective action. It's both/and. As the slogan invites, let's "Keep talking" and "Start doing."

Membership and Hospitality

Curious? Find out more about Unitarian Universalism and UUCM

By Rev. Kevin Tarsa, Minister

The UU History class went really well, and the final class in this fall series is Thursday, November 3rd at 6:00 p.m. about UU Principles and Theology.

For those who have decided to join our congregation, there is a special welcoming ceremony at the Sunday, November 20th service. Please talk to one of the membership committee members or Rev. Kevin if you plan to participate as there are a few things that need to be accomplished beforehand.

The next series of classes will begin with a Welcome to UU(CM) morning on Saturday, February 4th, and will offer an overview of this religious tradition and this particular congregation. The History and Principles/Theologies evenings are chances to delve a little deeper. The dates of those will be announced in the December Mt. Chalice.

All are welcome at any of these events.

PATH TO MEMBERSHIP FALL 2016

Thursday, November 3, 6 - 7:30 PM – UU Principles and Theologies

An overview and introduction to the foundational ideas that anchor Unitarian Universalism, with a chance to consider your current theological location. All are welcome.

Sunday, November 20 – Joining Sunday
(for those who have decided to join by then)

Greeters & Ushers are Teaming Up!

By Kathryn Young, Chair, Membership Committee

Since greeters and ushers have many overlapping duties, we have decided to team up. This will mean that we need just three volunteers per service rather than four. There will be a lead greeter, a lead usher and a greeter/usher combo who will assist in both areas.

The Lead Usher is responsible for putting out handicap parking signs, putting up the flag, assisting people as they come in, collecting the offering and making sure the sanctuary is in good order, and more.

The Lead Greeter helps visitors with badges and visitor cards, info about UUCM and UU in general, helps direct families to RE, and is available after the service to answer questions. The Greeter/Usher greets people as they come in, answers questions, helps collect the offering and assists with other tasks as needed.

We need more people to help out! If you can commit to greeting and/or ushering once a month or every other month, please let someone at the Membership table know. It's a job that happens while you are at UUCM already, with no lengthy meetings or commitments. We can train you on the spot. It's fun and easy and a great way to meet people and help out.

Planning Ahead for the Hospitality Hour!

By Marilyn Young, Coordinator, UUCM Hospitality Hour

I'm trying to set up a good system for running our Hospitality Hour between the services and I need your help. Each Sunday we need four to six people to either setup or cleanup, and donations of goodies to serve. The actual tasks are as follows:

SET-UP: This is done during the early service from 9:45 to ~10:30. You set the tables, make the coffee, and arrange the food on plates and platters. After the Hospitality Hour, you can attend the second service.

CLEAN-UP: Attend the first service, then come back for the Hospitality Hour and when the second service starts, you clear the tables, put away the food, and clean the kitchen. This should take 30-45 minutes.

FOOD DONATIONS: Each week we need donations of two or three sweet treats and two or three healthy treats – preferably dropped off in the kitchen before the first service.

During the Hospitality Hour, the crew is responsible for keeping the coffee pots full, and tables stocked and tidy.

I'd like to plan out several months if possible instead of scrambling each week for volunteers. You can help by contacting me and letting me know if you can commit to:

1. Set-up or clean-up once a month or every other month
2. Bring goodies once a month or every other month
3. Both work a shift and bring food.
4. Be on a list to be called when needed.

I would like to set up a schedule. Please contact me at: (hospitality@uugrassvalley.org, or 916-203-5962)

If you wish to sign up on line both to work or to donate food, you can open our on-line sign-up page (Make sure to click "SAVE" after you enter your availability on this form): <https://doodle.com/poll/kd5f6egedsqwegjr>

Caring Committee

Caring Committee Notes

By Gwen Eymann, Chair, Caring Committee

The Caring Committee serves the UUCM community by sharing our joys and offering support, help and contact to folks during times of special need. We as a community can all be part of the UUCM Caring Team by reaching out to each other to offer support, kind words, offers of help and good works. Please offer support and caring to the following people:

BEV LYON has come home from her two month stay in hospital in the Bay Area. We are so pleased to have her back in town and we look forward to her return to UUCM when she is ready.

BERYL MACLEAN BECKWITH had an extensive and successful back surgery in October. She will have a long and slow recovery through the end of this year. She appreciates all the caring and support she is receiving from our UUCM community.

LEAL PORTIS is fighting a recurrence of cancer. She intends to win this battle just like she did her last round with cancer 6 years ago. Leal could use our support and offers for rides to Sunday Service and doctors' appointments.

MATT WILSON-DALEY is recovering from a surgery he had mid-October. We wish Matt well, and hope he's back with us soon.

PENNY RODRICK is suffering from a chronic and painful disorder. She and her husband, Doug have had to give up their dream of extended travel and return to Grass Valley in order to access regular medical care. Please keep Doug and Penny in your thoughts.

ERNIE JACKSON is 92-years young. He doesn't always make it to UUCM events, but his spirit is there. Ernie would love calls and visits from old friends. He really enjoys his connection to Men's Group when he can get there.

CARING COMMITTEE

Gwen Eymann, chair

Barbara Chesnut, Robin Hart, May Lawrence, Anne Lyon, Leal Portis, Corrie Silva, and Lynn Whitson

Committee meetings are at 4:00 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month in the Anthony Room.

If you would like to reach out to members in need with rides, hot meals, home visits and more, please let us know.

Contact: Gwen Eymann, 530-274-7965
caring@uugrassvalley.org

The Mountain Chalice Caring notes come from individuals and from specific notes on our Joys & Sorrows/Concerns Cards. If you do not wish to have your words in The Mountain Chalice, please make a note on the card.

Joys & Sorrows Cards

Last month, we started using cards instead of a book to write down the Joys and Sorrows that you want to have read aloud in the service. The cards are on the small table in the entry to the sanctuary. You can take a card and a pencil to your seat to fill it out, and then either bring it to the basket on the Joys and Sorrows table by the pulpit before the service, or bring your card up front as people are placing pebbles in the water.

Our hope is that this will allow people to write more comfortably in terms of both time and space, and not have to stand at the table in the crowded entry area. We'll try it for a couple months and see how it goes.

Building & Grounds

November Update

WORK PARTY: SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19TH, 9 A.M.

By Wally Holtan, Chair, Building and Grounds Committee

THANK YOU!

I would like to give a big thank you to: Gwen Eymann, Theresa Houtman, Trudy Boardman, Will Silva, Keith Johnson, Yvonne Mills, Beth Freedman, Barbara Chestnut, Joel Houtman, Renee Wiley and David Ferrier for their help on this productive day. There was the sanctuary to clean and the chairs to vacuum and to replace missing felt pads. A concerted effort was instigated to get the nursery cleaned and reorganized. The upstairs R.E. room was cleaned and the minister's office cleaned and spruced up. A special thanks to Joel and David Ferrier for their effort to replace Rev. Kevin's door. They were there well after everyone had left. Much appreciated. I would also like to give a special thank you to Chuck Hart for volunteering to keep the front lawn under control while I am recuperating.

BREAKING NEWS:

Last month I noted that we are planning on having the sanctuary and foyer painted. Moving forward on that goal this month we are getting bids for the work. It will be an involved process and we could always use help in the planning. If anyone has skills in lighting give me a call as we need to address the sanctuary's lighting problems at the same time. I am also wondering if anyone out there is a professional plumber that would be willing to consult on some plumbing related issues. How about a roofer since I am asking?

COME HELP:

As always, watch for the B&G work days and consider volunteering. It's a fun way to get to know others AND help!

Social Justice Committee is Hard at Work

By Keith Johnson, Chair, Social Justice Committee

With the church year in full swing, the Social Justice Committee is hard at work on a variety of fronts, including the following:

- 1) The entire congregation is deciding on the proper response to the theft of the Black Lives Matter banner. The Committee stands ready to assist in the implementation of that collective decision. Stay tuned.
- 2) Together with the Acting DRE and the RE Visioning Team, the Committee is co-sponsoring a five day UU College of Social Justice youth BorderLinks trip this summer. There is space for up to five RE youth to make this trip to the Arizona/Mexico border. For more information about the trip, contact Kristin Famula or me.
- 3) We continue to build relationships with our social justice partners in order to mutually pursue social justice in our community. Examples include partnering with The Sierra Fund to alleviate the toxic legacy of mining in Nevada County, advocating with SYRCL in opposition to the proposed Centennial Dam, and promoting tiny homes for the homeless with Western Sierra YouthBuild and Sierra Roots.
- 4) The Committee coordinates on-going service projects such as Habitat for Humanity lunches, Hospitality House meals, food distribution for Inter-Faith Food Ministry, and several more. If you would like to volunteer your time, please contact me or Volunteer Coordinator Bob Miller. (bob@sierramiller.com, 530-205-5047)

Hospitality House Dinner Crew Prepares Meals at Utah's Place FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18 AT 4:00 P.M.,

By Keith Johnson, Chair, Social Justice Committee

UUCM volunteers make dinners at Hospitality House on the third and fifth Fridays of the month. We serve 40 to 60 people at each dinner. We also leave food for breakfast. If you would like to help prepare and serve meals, please contact Gwen Eymann at eymann@sbcglobal.net.

UUCM is seeking funds to purchase food for the meals. Each dinner costs anywhere from $150 to $225. If you would like to donate funds for this worthy cause, please contact me at kjohnson.uucm@gmail.com.

Pass the Plate

By Anita Wald-Tuttle, Pass the Plate Coordinator

When we changed the format for Pass The Plate from once a month with the whole plate going to the selected organization to every Sunday with 25% of the plate going each week to the organization we were hoping to increase our donation by making it possible for every member and friend to participate no matter which Sunday(s) they attended UUCM. I'm afraid we've only confused people since our Sunday collections have been reduced resulting in less and not more for our needy friends.

We're considering at least one new plan to turn this situation around. Stay tuned for further developments regarding Pass the Plate! In the meantime, please help our friends at Hospitality House for the month of November. Thank you!

December Pass the Plate Beneficiary HALO STANDS FOR HIV / AIDS LOCAL OUTREACH

By Greg Fancher, Member, Social Justice Committee

HALO is an organization within our Public Health Services that funds expenses for those living with HIV / AIDS in Nevada County. Many people living with this lifelong illness are poor or under the poverty level. Many are physically and / or mentally challenged and do not work full time, and have some difficulty with everyday living tasks. This fund helps those in need with unexpected expenses that most of us can handle (transportation, heating, food, clothing, additional medical supplies, therapy, etc...).

HALO is minimally funded by our government and needs community support through donations to keep it going. Your donations are held within a designated HALO account for 100% usage by those in most need. As with any chronic, lifelong disease, it takes the entire community to provide additional, non-government funded support so that those affected can maintain and not suffer further because of unexpected expenses. Please consider giving as you can during the month of December.

Soul Matters Circles

By Rev. Kevin Tarsa, Minister

Are you looking for deeper connection with others and a space within which you can explore your deepest values and your deepest self? A space within which you can grow in profound ways and become the person you most want to be?

Small group ministries go by many names and take different forms in different congregations. At root they offer people an important chance to find a small circle of intimacy and depth within the circle of the larger community. Here at UUCM they have had a number of names over the years. The most recent circles blended the nature of an affinity group – a group gathered around a shared outside interest – with a covenant group, a group whose shared interest is the deep connection, personal exploration and powerful interaction possible when a group and its gatherings are designed to create just the space for these.

Rather than discussion groups, these are groups of deep reflection, sharing and connection. They are anchored in relationship.

UUCM's current circle facilitators met with me several times in order to envision the richest possibilities for small group ministry at UUCM. Together, with Phil Hart as chair of the team, we are preparing for the first round of Soul Matters Circles to begin in late January for all those who are interested. Sign up will take place this fall so we can discern what leadership will be needed.

The name Soul Matters Circles is drawn from the Soul Matters organization that offers resources for our monthly themes. In fact, Soul Matters is first and foremost a resource for small groups who explore and experience the monthly themes in depth. "The core purpose . . . is to create formative space for individuals. This is a space of acceptance and safety in which group members can explore their deepest values and inner voice without judgement or coercion. We help each other become the people we most want to be." (See a sample: The Soul Matters resource for the November Story theme at <http://www.ugrassvalley.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/10/COMMUNITY-soul-matters.pdf> .

Soul Matters Circles of approximately 8 people each (10 maximum) will meet at least monthly, with an expected commitment of one year - or for these circles beginning in January, perhaps a year and a half. Facilitators will be trained in January and mentored throughout the year by the minister and skilled facilitators. In fact, facilitators will form their own separate covenant group as part of their learning.

I'll speak a bit more about Soul Matters Circles in the service on November 20 when we welcome new members to UUCM. Watch for more information, testimonials, online sign up notices and sign-up sheets at services.

Meanwhile, you may contact me (minister@ugrassvalley.org or 530-274-1661) or Phil Hart (philhart115@gmail.com or 530-272-6870) if you already know you are interested or if you have questions that need answering before you express interest.

The Pacific Central District of the UU Association presents: INTERDEPENDENCE DAY

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, SANTA ROSA, CA

For those of you within driving range of Santa Rosa, California, I hope you will bring a team to our "Interdependence Day: Building Beloved Community" on Saturday, November 12. No matter the outcome of the election, we have work to do in our congregations and our world and we need one another to do it! It will be a day of deep connection, celebration and learning. Our day will begin with a worship service with a full band and end with a blessing of the leaders.

Our learning will include:

- Our Covenantal Faith and Beloved Community: Exploring the connections and the diversity among us.
- Helping Things Go Right in Your Congregation: An ounce of prevention is still worth a pound of cure, or maybe even more. Much of the conflict in congregations can be avoided by paying attention to some basics.
- Paths to Healing: No matter what steps we take, conflict is inevitable. When responded to in healthy ways, it can be used to create and strengthen relationships and our congregations and help us serve as a beacon to the world.

How to Access the New Online Directory from UUCM's Website

By Conrad Sisk, Office Administrator

In early September, all members and friends with email were emailed a link to create a username and password for the new online member and friend directory. Many of you have taken a look, and have sent me some great suggestions on how to improve this resource going forward.

If you have chosen a username and password, you can now access the member and friend directory anytime from UUCM's homepage (<http://www.uugrassvalley.org/>). You will see a box in the middle of the homepage with the words “Member Directory” beside the UUCM logo over a purple background. In the following picture, the box I have described is circled in red: ➤

If you are a member, friend, or a spouse or child of a member or friend, AND you have selected a username and password, you can click on this box to get to the login page for the new directory (For any bookmarks/favorites users out there: You can bookmark/favorite this login page in your browser for even faster access to the UUCM member & friend directory in the future).

From this login page, click “Login to Account” which is under the “I have an account” heading. In the following picture, the “I have an account” section is circled in red. ▼

Use your username and password to login. If you do not have a username and password, and you would like one, please let me know (admin@uugrassvalley.org or 530-274-1675). Please do not start your own account through the login page.

I will be emailing printable directories to the Members and Friends email list on a quarterly basis, but if you would like a fresh copy at any time, please be in touch with me.
