

Mosaic:

*Small pieces of stone, glass, and tile gathered together
to make a beautiful whole.*

Imagine UUCM as a mosaic, ever growing and expanding. Each person and each accomplishment is a “tile” that contributes to the larger picture. Each person represents the values we hold close to our hearts: caring, compassion, and the search for justice.

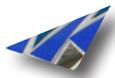

This year, through your generosity and commitment, we’ve been able to add many important tiles:

Toby Thomas-Rose, Music Director, uplifts and delights us with his beautiful piano at every service. And the choir returns under his thoughtful guidance!

Aiden McCarthy, Kids’ Connection Teacher, a UUCM alum(!), brings his youthful enthusiasm to guide our youngsters in the principles of our faith.

Siobhan Boylan, Technology Assistant, increases the breadth of our audio-visual team and mentors those who wish to come aboard.

Mary Lindsay, Communication Director and Minister Assistant, enhances the quality of our information sharing and organization.

The new Lay Pastoral Care and Stewards Teams ensure connection to each other, whether near or far.

Reverend Jan Onnie, Sabbatical Minister, a gem found by the diligent efforts of our Sabbatical Minister Search Team, sparkles in our mosaic with her grace, intelligence, and sense of humor.

In the year ahead, we challenge you to make your own contribution through participation and giving, which is essential to sustaining our beloved community. Carry the image of the UUCM mosaic and your part in it with intention and thoughtfulness.

Your Stewardship Team,
Maryann Currington, Chair,
Lesley Champlin, Susan Merrill,
Lin Jovanovic, Anita Wald-Tuttle
